Dear Sir:

I tender you an apology for my neglect to enclose the stamps, as long ago intended, for the subsequent delay. Thank you kindly for your attention in the matter for your last favor. Will you drop me a postal card of receipt?
 I send you 28 three cent stamps or 84¢; your favor calls for 83¢. Very truly, George T. Kelly

J. M. MacLeod

Curator Cooper's Gallery of Art -

I regret to say that it is impossible to comply with the rules of the Gallery concerning the examination of Pictures, as it is impossible to undergo the expense for a chance of a sale.

There are no traditions properly speaking concerning the picture of Mrs. Roger Smith, as it has always been in her family, having descended in a direct line to my Mother who is a granddaughter of the original.

It is found mentioned in a list of Romney's paintings 1786 and there is no doubt whatever as to its authenticity

Dear Sir,

I should be very much obliged if the Trustees of the Corcoran Art gallery could let me know as soon as they conveniently can, which of the works they decide to purchase, I ought to vacate my rooms on Monday, but hope to persuade my landlord to let me remain until after the next meeting of the Committee, which I understand is on Tuesday.

Mr Corcoran paid me a visit today, and,
as far as he could see, liked the Geo. Cole, the Parson and the original drawings.

I shall have to go to Philadelphia on Monday;
but my secretary Mr Ellist will remain to finish packing, and is deputed to act for me.

I trust that when I next visit Washington, I shall find you able ure is duly to hand, & I am getting ready to go to Rome where future letters will find me no

I have a plinth in full size at my workshop in

Dear Sir,

Last summer
I spent much time modelling our Guernsey cow.

I have had it cast in bronze and would like to dispose of a few copies

I write to ask if I can send a cast to put on exhibition in the Leicester Gallery?

All who have seen it speak highly of it.

You will be glad to know that my Uncle is some better this winter than he has been for some time.

He sends his regards to you and his friends whom you may see.

Respectfully Yours
